

RED OAK STEAKHOUSE NOMINATED IN ARKANSAS TIMES READERS CHOICE AWARDS 2022 TOP FIVE

Two of Saracen Casino Resort's Red Oak Steakhouse has been nominated for five Arkansas Time Readers Choice Awards, after making it past the initial nomination process in early November.

According to the Arkansas Times website, the publication has asked readers to vote for the best restaurants in the state since 1981, making this the longest-running restaurant poll in the state.

Red Oak Steakhouse has been nominated for best overall, best new restaurant, best fine dining, best chef (Chef Joseph Coleman), and best server (Katherine Coling). All nominations are in the "Around Arkansas" category, since we're located outside of the Little Rock metro.

If you'd to vote for any of the categories, you can do so once per day until Dec. 11, 2021. You can vote on each category once a day.

Vote for each category at the links below:

- Best Overall Restaurant
- Best New Restaurant Around Arkansas
- Best Fine Dining Around Arkansas
- Best Chef Around Arkansas. Chef Joseph Coleman
- Best Server, Katherine Coling

We'll announce on our social media and website if we win any of the final awards!

Thank you all for participating!
